Dear Vibhawari,
Greetings!

Thank you, Vibhawari, for your time and efforts on helping me navigate a confusing path for a vital service like health insurance. Your engaging personality made it easy for me to trust you with the lives of my sons.

Being a Health Insurance Advisor and Vendor is an onerous responsibility of a karmic reach. It is a matter of Life and Death. I wish you great wisdom, knowledge and maturity to conduct your services with conviction and transparency.

I shall be happy to recommend you to my connections.

Yours sincerely,
Geeta Kapoor
